Whitehall, April 26.

THE following Addreſs having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable the Earl of Ilay, Lord Juſtice General and Keeper of the Great Seal of Scotland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords, Juſtices of Peace, Barons and Freeholders of the Shire of Edinburgh.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE humbly beg Leave, with Hearts full of Zeal and Affection for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, to joyn with the Reſt of your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, to congratulate your Majeſty on the happy Marriage of the Princeſs Royal, to his moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

We cannot but be very ſenſible of your Majeſty's paternal Care in ſo promiſing an Alliance, ſince thereby a laſting Foundation and Security is given, not only to our religious and civil Intereſts, but to the Proteſtant Cauſe and Liberties of Europe.

As the Memory of the immortal King William muſt alwiſe be very dear to the Britiſh Nation, ſo it muſt fill our Hearts with extream Joy and Pleaſure, to ſee a Princeſs of ſo great Accompliſhments beſtowed on the Heir of his illuſtrious Houſe and moſt ſublime Virtues.

May your Majeſty long live to Reign over us: And may your Royal Conſort the Queen, the Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Family, ſhare in the greateſt Bleſſings which their Hearts can wiſh, or Heaven can beſtow.

The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable the Earl of Ilay, Lord Juſtice General and Keeper of the Great Seal of Scotland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrats and Town Council of the City of Glaſgow, for ourſelves, and in Name of the Corporation.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects moſt humbly beg Leave, with Hearts full of Joy, to congratulate your Majeſty on the happy Concluſion of the Marriage of the Princeſs Royal with his moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

We cannot ſufficiently extol and admire your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and extenſive Views in renewing another Alliance with the illuſtrious Houſe of Naſſau, ſo much for the Intereſt and common Welfare of the Proteſtant Religion at Home and Abroad; the ſecuring the Succeſſion to theſe Kingdoms according to the Preſent happy Settlement; for confirming the Confidence and Friendſhip which ſubſiſts between your Majeſty and the High and Mighty States of Holland; and for the preſent and future Peace and Happineſs of your Subjects, and of all Europe.

It gives us the greateſt Joy and Pleaſure that the Princeſs Royal of Great Britain is given in Marriage to the worthy Heir of King William the Third of glorious Memory, who delivered theſe Nations from the Danger of Popery and Arbitrary Power; and by ſettling the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty's moſt Royal Houſe, has ſecured to us, our Religion and Liberties, the greateſt Bleſſing and Happineſs theſe Nations ever met with.

May your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort the Queen live to ſee all the remaining Branches of your Royal Family ſo happily matched, as may give equal Joy and Satisfaction to your Majeſties, and all your loyal Subjects, and ſee their numerous Iſſue and Progeny geny that may be Aſſertors and Defenders of our Religion and Liberties.

May we long enjoy the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Government; and may your Reign be proſperous and glorious over all your Enemies, that you may conſtantly maintain the Balance of Power in Europe.

We humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, as we have upon all Occaſions been zealous for the Preſervation of the Proteſtant Religion and our preſent happy Settlement, ſo we will always continue to evidence our Zeal for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and ſtill maintain a juſt Senſe of the ineſtimable Bleſſings we now enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, by Glaſgow, April 12, 1734. Hugh Rodger, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable the Earl of Ilay, Lord Juſtice General and Keeper of the Great Seal of Scotland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculty, and Profeſſors in the Univerſity of Glaſgow.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, having our Hearts filled with the moſt grateful Senſe of the many Bleſſings theſe Nations enjoy under your happy Government, humbly beg Leave to joyn in the univerſal Joy diffuſed through theſe Realms upon the Nuptials of the Princeſs Royal with his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

It cannot but afford the greateſt Pleaſure to all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, that you have given a Princeſs of ſuch diſtinguſhed Accompliſhments, formed by the pious Care and Example of her Royal Mother, to a Prince endowed with the moſt eminent Vertues, and animated by the glorious Example of his illuſtrious Anceſtors, Aſſertors of the Liberties of Europe, and Protectors of the Proteſtant Religion.

This repeated Alliance betwixt the Royal Family of Great Britain and the illuſtrious Houſe of Orange, muſt revive the Joy, and increaſe the Gratitude of all the Lovers of our excellent Conſtitution, for the ineſtimable Bleſſings we owe, under God, to our glorious Deliverer King William, who reſtored our civil and religious Liberties, and ſecured them to Poſterity by the Settlement of the Crown in the moſt illuſtrious Family of Hanover.

We take this Opportunity to aſſure your Majeſty, that, as we are moſt ſacredly bound in Duty, it ſhall ever be our zealous Study to infuſe into the Minds of thoſe under our Care, juſt Principles of Loyalty to your Majeſty, and the deepeſt and moſt grateful Senſe of the Happineſs of all the Dominions under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government.

That Almighty God may eminently bleſs and long preſerve your Majeſty to reign over a willing People; that He may graciouſly ſhine upon your Royal Conſort the Queen; bleſs his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and beſtow all Comforts upon the illuſtrious Pair, and ever keep all the Royal Offſpring under His gracious Protection, is, and ſhall ever be, the Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt loyal, and moſt devoted Subjects.

The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted to the Honourable Major General Sutton, Governour of the Iſland of Guernſey, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant Governour, Bailiff, Jurats, Clergy, and other your Majeſty's Officers, in your Majeſty's Iſland of Guernſey, in Behalf of themſelves, and the Reſt of the Inhabitants of the ſaid Iſland.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and moſt faithful Subjects, humbly beg Leave to joyn, with the Reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, our ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty upon the Marriage of her Highneſs the Princeſs Royal your Daughter, with his moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

By this Alliance your Majeſty gives at once convincing Proofs of your Majeſty's great Wiſdom, by beſtowing a Princeſs moſt virtuouſly and religiouſly framed, on a Prince whoſe great Accompliſhments give the Proteſtant World hopes he will equal, if not ſurpaſs his noble and heroic Anceſtors: And of your Majeſty's love to your People, by gratifying a Prince who bears the Name of, and is deſcended from the ſame Stock with their great Deliverer King William the Third of glorious Memory, with one of your Royal Offſpring.

The infinite Obligations of which the whole Nation in general ſtands indebted to the illuſtrious Houſe of Naſſau, remain freſh in our Memory; and we ſhall ever remember that glorious Prince, who ſo happily delivered the whole Kingdom from Miſery and Slavery, and tranſmitted the Crown to your Majeſty.

That the Almighty may pour his greateſt Bleſſings on your Majeſty, upon your Royal Conſort our moſt gracious Queen, on his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and equally ſhed his kindeſt Influence on the Royal Pair, and on the Reſt of your Majeſty's Royal Family, are the moſt ſincere Wiſhes, and earneſt Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and moſt dutiful Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County Palatine of Cheſter, having been preſented to his Majeſty, his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen, aſſembled at the Aſſizes held for the County Palatine of Cheſter the 13th Day of April, 1734.

WE beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Marriage of the Princeſs Royal with his moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange and Naſſau.

The high Birth of that excellent Princeſs, joyned to all thoſe Vertues which adorn her Mind, command the utmoſt Veneration and Eſteem; and it is with the greateſt Pleaſure we behold the firſt Princeſs of your Majeſty's Royal Family given to a Prince of the moſt diſtinguiſhed Merit; a Prince of that illuſtrious Houſe, which in all Ages have ſignalized themſelves as Defenders of the oppreſt Rights and Liberties of Mankind.

Your Majeſty, by a Concurrence of Providence, has given the greateſt and moſt agreeable Pledge of a national and univerſal Love to the immortal Memory of our glorious Deliverer King William, who encounter'd with all Dangers to reſcue us from Popery and Slavery, and effectually ſecured to us our religious and civil Rights, by the Eſtabliſhment of his Imperial Crown in your Majeſty's Proteſtant Royal Family.

By this happy Union your Majeſty has given additional Strength to that Succeſſion, which is the Foundation of our Happineſs, with the pleaſing Proſpect of its being tranſmitted ſafe to lateſt Poſterity.

We ſincerely unite with all thoſe who teſtify an unfeigned joy; and ſurely all muſt applaud, when the moſt Factious know not how to condemn.

May the Bleſſing of Heaven continually attend our preſent happy Conſtitution, and your Majeſty's glorious Adminiſtration, and may your Majeſty ever have the filial Regard and Obedience of all your Subjects.
